

At "The Aero Club of Northern California" 19th Annual Awards Banquet, Martin Hollmann was presented the "NAA Certificate of Honor Award" by Ron Blake, Aero Club President, and Dr. Tom Leonard, retired Chairman of the Department of Aviation at San Jose University. The award was given "in recognition of Hollmann's many contributions to aviation through the application of computer aided design and the integration of composites into conventional design. His highly creative designs can be found in a wide variety of rotary and fixed wing aircraft."

The Aero Club of America is a chapter of the National Aeronautic Association, NAA, and was founded in 1905. It is the oldest independent, non-profit aviation organization in the USA. Until 1926, it issued all pilot licenses in the US.

The above picture shows Martin Hollmann on the left, Ron Blake making the presentation, and Dr. Tom Leonard.